*Three models.
One clear line.*

Discover heating comfort in a new way.

Three pellet stoves, built on the same technical foundation – and a design that blends into any room without overwhelming it. Whether straight-lined or round: Each variant follows the same principle – modern technology, clear design, durable materials.

What sets them apart:

- Solid cast iron doors with push function
- Display and rotary knob for easy operation
- Various claddings
- Powerful performance at a good price

Heating comfort that pays off.
